

CALL FOR PAPERS
FOR YOUNG RESEARCHERS

The Institute for Social Law of the KU Leuven and the European Institute of Social Security in cooperation with the League of European Research Universities are organizing the EISS annual conference for 2010 on the topic “The social security of moving researchers”. The Conference will be held in Leuven, on September 23rd and 24th.

During this conference young researchers also have the opportunity to present recent comparative research relating to the topic of the conference or to other social security and social protection issues.

Young researchers interested in submitting abstracts are invited to do so until July 10th 2010. The selected abstracts will be presented in the “Young Researchers’ Forum” that will be held on September 24th. Abstracts should not exceed 1500 words and presentations will be restricted to 10 minutes. For additional information please contact kirsten.vandenbempt@law.kuleuven.be

Prof. Danny Pieters

Director Institute of Social Law, KU Leuven
Secretary General of the European Institute of Social Security